The Peace Dollar

1921-1928; 1934-1935

First struck in 1921 to commemorate the end of World War I, the Peace silver dollar instantly became one of the most popular coins in American history. Many consider this 90% silver coin to be the last "true" American silver dollar minted for circulation.

The Morgan Dollar

1878-1904; 1921

First minted in 1878, the Morgan silver dollar was the product of America's largest silver strike, which occurred at the Comstock Lode in Nevada in the mid-1870s. Its connection to an important period in American history has rendered it a highly sought after piece among collectors.
